PRODUCT DATA SHEET

BAGBOX 250L CLEANROOM TOTE

Engineered for biotech & pharmaceutical industries with exacting hygiene standards in fluid handling, the BagBox 250L cleanroom tote is a testament to meticulous design. Tailored for pharmaceuticals and biotech applications, it guarantees compatibility with all 3D sterile single-use bags available in the market. With a primary focus on safeguarding vulnerable biotech and pharmaceutical fluids, the BagBox 250L cleanroom tote proves indispensable for preserving sensitive materials. Fully dedicated design for optimizing fluid handling processes, it enhances operational reliability in these critical applications. Boasting a substantial 250 litre capacity, this collapsible tote accentuates advantages for efficiently managing already larger loads, ensuring heightened versatility and reliability.

Whether facilitating the transport of pharmaceutical compounds or overseeing the handling of delicate biotechnological fluids, the BagBox 250L cleanroom tote stands out as a steadfast choice. Adhering rigorously to hygiene and precision standards, it actively contributes to the efficiency of fluid handling processes in critical industry applications, providing a robust solution for volumes slightly larger than its counterparts.
