BAGBOX 300L TRANSPORT TOTE

BagBox totes are designed for secure and hygienic fluid handling in the Biotechnological and Pharmaceutical industries. The BagBox 300L Transport Tote is purpose-built for the safe and efficient movement of fluids. Ideal for biotech and pharmaceutical fluid transport, it accommodates both 2D and 3D sterile single-use bags with ease.

Compact and reliable, the BagBox 300L ensures the protection of sensitive fluids during transit. Engineered to streamline fluid handling, it supports critical processes where precision and reliability matter most. With a reduced 300 litre capacity, it offers excellent handling efficiency in a smaller footprint, featuring the same trusted security features as its larger counterpart. Unlike the cleanroom model, the BagBox 300L Transport Tote includes a lockable door and a compartment above pallet level to securely stow discharge tubes during transport helping prevent tampering or sabotage.

Whether managing smaller batches of pharmaceutical compounds or transporting delicate biotech fluids, the BagBox 300L stands out for its security, efficiency, and compact versatility. Designed to meet the highest cleanliness and precision standards, it is a trusted solution for intermediate volume fluid handling in demanding industry environments.
